LUTHERANS EXPLAIN SUNDAY ATTITUDE

"Born in University" Cannot Approve of Evangelistic Campaign.

stands "for a trained and cultured ministry and an educated membership," and for other reasons set forth in the statement, it is said "the proposed evangelistic campaign for this city is out of harmony with the teachings and usages of our church, and (we) cannot, therefore conscientiously approve of it."

The statement defining the position of the twelve Lutheran clergymen who take issue with those Lutheran clergymen who take issue with those Lutheran clergymen who favored Sunday's coming follows:

The Cartesian in the statement and Lincoln's birthday in Hamline M. E. Church, the Rev. Lucius C. Clark, pastor. The sermon at the 11 o'clock service will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Whitford L. McDowell, superfine M. E. Church.

Major Irvin L. Hunt, U. S. A., will address the Bolgiano Class, of the Foundry M. E. Church Sunday school,

"First: The Lutheran Church was born in a university and in the entire 400 years of her history, she has stood, in all countries, for a trained and cultured ministry and an educated membership, able to give a reason for the faith that is theirs.

"Becond: To this end, the Lutheran Church has systematically taught her children the fundamental truths of the word of God in a course of catechetical instruction, and has sought to train them from childhood and early youth in the Christian life, which requires years of religious nurture for their derelopment of the Christian graces. Reverence Necessary.

"Third: The Lutheran Church th oughout the world emphasizes the importance of reverence for divine things-the House of God, the Lord's Day, His word, His sacraments, His name, His work. These things are not to be spoken of or treated lightly or irreverently, but in the fear of God. The word of God is to be taught in its purity and in its entirety, and the wor-ship of God is to be conducted orderly, decently, and reverently. "The Lutheran Church, therefore, con-

"The Lutheran Church, therefore, condemns the use, in Christian worship and work, of slang, vulgarity, contempt or ridicule of the church and sacred things; for the treatment of the highest interests of the immortal soul demands the greatest, the highest, the best and noblest expression, in thought, word, and act, that mortal man can give. The Old Testament demands reverence; the New Testament urges it; Christ exemplified and enforced it; and so the Lutheran Church through all the centuries has emphasized it, as she does today. Other faiths, other people, other

Rev. Mr. MacMurray to Deliver Peace Sermon

At the Union Methodist Episcopal Church, Twentieth street near Pennsylvania avenue northwest, the pastor the Rev. John MacMurray, will deliver a peace sermon tomorrow morning at Il o'clock on the topic; "God and His Family," and at 7:30 p. m. Madame Mountford, who has been speaking each week in this church, will discuss "The Shepherd Psalm"

Large audiences have been listening to Madame Mountford in her inimitable word picturing of present and past conditions and customs and life in Palestine as throwing light upon Bible teaching. In the opinion of many she makes the Bible a new book by her vivid descriptions and clear explanations.

Is This a Crooked Age?

"Is This a Crooked Age?" will be the subject of the 11 o'clock sermon by the Rev. F. W. Johnson at the Grace Baptist Church, Ninth and D streets southeast, tomorrow. For the baptism service at 7:45 p. m. the pastor announces "Cut It Out" as the subject of his sermon.

Since the opening of the new audi-torium a continual revival spirit has existed in the church. Hardly a service has been held that has not resulted in one or more professions of faith and olications for membership hand are either requisite or sufficient to save the soul. Above all and in all there must be a regeneration of the heart, with a personal faith in a personal Saviour, whose blood cleanses us from sin. The heinousness of sin, the helplessness of the human will unaided by the Holy Spirit, the atoning sacrifice of the Son of God for man's salvation and in it all the love and the mercy of God are truths so high, so precious, so essential to human happiness and hope, that they command the deepest for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground."

Services at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church tomorrow will be a celebration of the centenary, of peace between the United States and Great Britain. Special for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground."

For these reasons, we deem the proposed evangelistic campaign for this city out of harmony with the teachings and usages of our church, and cannot, therefore, conscientiously approve of it."

WHAT IT STANDS FOR

Temple Talks, Alpha Series

THE CHURCH MAKES MEN OVER AGAIN. If we allow the Church to fall into disfavor, what have we to take its place? Every observer knows that its work is unique. It is doing what nobody else can do. It is more than a fraternal or benevolent league. To give charity is a worthy act in which all men should engage, but Christ never gave charity once in His whole ministry. He gave the larger gift, the endowment of life, with the capacity to exercise it. When Dr. J. H. Jowett was asked if the leop ard could indeed change its spots, if a nature utterly corrupt and unamiable could be reborn, he replied "The Church is a ministry that confers capacity. It gives life, restores life, makes life. And it gives to life the power to advance." IT IS EASIER TO SMASH A VENETIAN VASE THAN IT IS TO MAKE ONE. No high order of genius is required to smother the Church, but if ever its requiem shall be sung, a breed of human beings will arise whose only mark of distinction from the beast will be a lack of bristles.

ALL THE CHURCHES WOULD BE CROWDED TOMORROW if men and women would give ten minutes' thou ght to the responsibility they share in perpetuating this greatest civilizer in the whole wide world. Christ said indifference is a crime. His indictment against the easy going moralist, and the smug indifferent religionist was more severe than His arraignment of the bold faced harlot. Witness Dives and the woman of Samaria.

YOUR CHURCH IS THE CENT ER OF POWER and spiritual life in your community. We require the public schools for our children, and not without cause. But mental training in itself is no adequate equipment. An educated rascal is much more dangerous than a fool. It is essential for us to recognize the value of the soul. To neglect religion is to act as if we were soulless. The surest way to lose the soul is to conduct ones self as if he had none. Unused endowments invariably atrophy. Does the attitude of the non-Churchgoer square with the man who thinks he has a soul?

THE CHURCH IS THE BIGGEST OF BROTHERHOODS. But some have supposed that it has fallen down in this particular. The numerous fraternities throughout the land are exemplifying in a splendid degree the Christian virtue of brotherhood. But there is always the temptation in these orders to magnify their functions into unreal proportions. No lodge or fraternity whatsoever is an equivalent or near substitute for the Church. He who thinks so mistakes the twig for the tree. All benevolent institutions have borrowed their fraternal spirit from the Church. They sail their boats upon the water of life that has spilled over from the great reservoir, the Church. Let them flourish, for they are worthy; but let no man mistake the annual gift of a few dollars for a needy brother, or for a smoker or banquet with wines, as a full and adequate discharge for his divine service to Almighty God. The best lodge men are generally good Church men. The biggest brotherhood embraces the human family, with God recognized as Father. That's the Church.

SUSTAIN IT. It is here to do what nobody else can ever do. But its rise or fall is measured by your interest in it. The Church is yours; claim its service, accept its ideals. Suppress the spirit of timidity. Demand your birthright; you are citizens of two worlds.

use. But mental training in itself is no adequate equipment. An educated scal is much more dangerous than a fool. It is essential for us to recognize value of the soul. To neglect religion is to act as if we were soulless. The
